He has had a long career in HR Management in the public and private sector and has run his own consultancy specialising in HR, Team and Career Management and Coaching since 1999. Tennis is in his blood and Roger has the energy to contribute to the promotion of the game for all comers at Longueville Tennis Club.

James Riley

Member since 2010; Longueville resident for over 20 years. Friday/Sunday morning social group player. Background in Finance/IT. Recently retired.

Emma Rossi

I grew up the ninth of ten kids with a grass tennis court in Northwood which meant more maintenance than play! I played school comp and adult badge. But it has always been just the love of the game that keeps me coming back at least twice a week to LTC. Off the court I've worked as a broadcast journalist and communications specialist. Not for profit directorships have included Active Farmers and domestic violence services, Mary's House.
